Attachment to
Certificate of Incorporation of Circassian Repatriation Organization Corp.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: Since the deportation of Circassians from their historical homeland in the North Caucasus, and Circassians have been faced by one tragedy after another. Over the last 150 years, Circassians have been frequently caught in the middle of various conflicts and repeatedly faced with sever humanitarian disasters. It has become urgently pressing to establish an Organization that can aid and assist Circassians throughout their adversity, elevate all hardships and facilitate their return to their homeland in the North Caucasus. Therefore the Circassian Repatriation Organization is aimed:

- To provide aid and support to all Circassians who wish to return to the historic homeland in the North Caucasus;
- To relieve distress resulting from the dislocation of persons of Circassian heritage and provide support by establishing, operating and maintaining a center or centers to provide relief, and to provide assistance for relocation and repatriation to safe environments;
- To develop or promote awareness of the plight of person, especially those of Circassian heritage by educating and instructing the public on measures for relocating and repatriating such person to safe havens in the North Caucasus by researching and documenting factors to such end;
- To provide necessities of life to victims of disasters and dislocations for persons of Circassian heritage;
- To educate and increase the public's understanding of the plight of persons of Circassian heritage and the importance of stressing their right to repatriating them by offering seminars, conferences and meetings and by collecting and disseminating information related thereto;
- To develop and provide programs promoting the protection and preservation of persons of Circassian heritage through educating institutions, industries, businesses and individuals about the need to provide assistance and aid to such persons in repatriation;
- To establish communication with the appropriate governments or governmental agencies and international.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any
